Mr.Rajesh More A.P.P. for State

CORAM: A.S.OKA,J.
DATE : OCTOBER 20,2006.

P.C.:

1. The Applicant appearing in person makes a grievance that notwithstanding the earlier order passed by this Court directing expeditious disposal of the complaints, the same are not being decided by the learned Magistrate. He states that the earlier order of this court is not complied with.

2. The applicant appearing in person states that he is not pressing prayer (a) at this stage. Prayer (b) cannot be granted. So far as prayer (c) is concerned, the Trial court will have to comply with the order passed by this Court of expediting the trial.

3. If older cases are not pending before the Trial court, necessary priority will be given to the hearing of the case of the Applicant and the same shall be disposed of as expeditiously as possible. It is made clear that the this direction is issued as it is brought to my notice that the cases are very old. It is however made clear that all cases will be disposed of in chronological order.

4. Application is disposed of.
